Salgaocar College of Law hosted the National Moot Court Competition from 27th to 29th January, 2023, in the memory of a distinguished advocate and Judge, Late Justice G.D. Kamat. The Competition is being held in association with The Justice G. D. Kamat Charitable Trust.

The objective of this competition is to provide law students with an opportunity to sharpen their legal research, analytical, and advocacy skills by presenting arguments in a simulated court setting. This competition is also designed to help students to develop their legal research and drafting skills, as well as improve their ability to think critically and analyze complex legal issues. It also provides students with the opportunity to hone their advocacy skills by presenting their arguments in front of a panel of judges.

The Competition was announced in first week of November 2022, and received an overwhelming participation from prestigious and ranked Law Colleges and Universities across India. The Competition witnessed 26 Prestigious Law Institutions from the Country competing for the trophy (See Annexure 4).

Valedictory Ceremony

The Valedictory Ceremony was held on 29th January, at Raythatha Hall, Panjim Gymkhana. The Valedictory ceremony concluded with Prize Distribution ceremony which was held in the presence of Chief Guest, Hon'ble Shri. Justice Mahesh Sonak, and members of the Justice G.D. Kamat Charitable Trust.

The welcome address was given by Dr. G. Shaber Ali, Principal of VMSCCL. Vice-Chairman and Education Advisor of Devi Sharvani Education Society's VMSCCL, Shri. Bhaskar Nayak emphasised that the primary responsibility of Law Institution is to hold Moot Courts and ADR and said that V.M. Salgaocar College of Law has always fulfilled that responsibility. Shri. Ulhas D. Kamat, brother of late Justice G.D. Kamat and trustee of the Justice G.D. Kamat Charitable Trust, in his address mentioned that the Trust was set up to pay homage to the late Judge. He traced the late Justice's life from being a High Court advocate and associating with educational and social organisations to becoming a Judge and introducing the Lok Nayalay at Bombay High Court –Goa Bench in July 1996.

The Chief Guest Justice Mahesh S. Sonak, through his address advised law students to give law ‘creative interpretation’ rather than merely adhere to precedents. “Precedents are not chains that tie us to the past. Look at them as light posts which illuminates the way,” Justice Sonak said. “Therefore, learn to go where no one has gone before and then leave behind a beautiful trail.” The Chief Gest and the Trustees were called upon to distribute the Prizes and Merit Certificates. The vote of thanks was proposed by Director, and faculty Coordinator of the Competition, Dr. Aamod M. Shirali.

Dr. Aamod Shirali stated that a Competition of this magnitude would not be possible without the support of the Management of VMSCL, the trustees of the Justice G.D. Kamat Charitable Trust, the faculty members and staff, Organising Committee of Students, the, and several student volunteers. Each of the Departments together with the Faculty incharge and the OC head (see Annexure 3), Deputy head and volunteers were called forward before the august gathering to recognise their hard work and efforts in making the event successful (See Annexure 3). He thanked one and all during his address.

BENEFITS OF THE COMPETITION

The organization of this Competition has benefits two fold.

1. The Moot Court Competition has secured recognition for the College at the National Level for creating a competitive environment for mooting culture and created a platform for Universities, Law Schools and Aided Colleges to participate in a Competition which maintains high standard of Competition and transparency.
2. The Students of our College observed the Moot Competition and inter alia learnt presentation of arguments, court manners, legal research, Citation of Judgments, response to questions of judges and court craft skills. The VMSCS stand by team was also prepared with their case. Approximately 100 Students of BA.LL.B and LL.B (Degree) Programs, attended the sessions in the various Court Rooms which contained limited seating arrangement of 10 seats each reserved for students.

FEEDBACK FROM PARTICIPANTS AND JUDGES

The Moot Court Society which spearheaded this Competition is always in pursuit of excellence. For this purpose, feedback was obtained by circulation of google form to all participating teams. All teams appreciated the Institution and lauded the efforts of the OC and faculty members. Their suggestions were discussed with OC students team and the faculty members in a review meeting. The High Court Judges, and other Senior Advocates also had the occasion to provide us with feedback with regard to the participants. The Judges stated that standard of Competition was high.

REVIEW MEETING OF ORGANISING COMMITTEE AND FACULTY

Review meeting of the Organising Committee of Students was held on 7th February, 2023. For the purpose of improvement in subsequent organization of the Moot Competition, a detailed review was conducted of each department. Student heads provided an insight into the lapses if any, and provided suggestions which could be considered for subsequent competition. The feedback obtained from the organizing committee was documented and presented to the Principal on 7th February, 2023 vide email. Further, in faculty meeting held on 4th March, 2023, the detailed review of each department was presented and suggestions were elicited from the faculty members and Principal.

National Moot Court Competition held

On January 29, 2023 the Valedictory Function of the Justice G.D. Kamat Memorial National Moot Court Competition 2023, was held in Raythata Hall, Panjim Gymkhana.

The function began with a welcome address by Dr. G Shabir Ali (Principal V.M. Salgaocar College of Law) who welcomed the Chief Guest, Judge of the High Court of Bombay at Goa Hon'ble Shri Justice Mahesh S Sonak and congratulated the participants for their efforts.

This was followed by an address by Mr. Ulhas Kamat (trustee) who spoke about the life and journey of G.D. Kamat to becoming a prestigious judge and a humble human being.

Further on Vice- Chairman and Education Advisor of DSES, VMSCL,

Mr. Bhaskar Nayak emphasized on the primary responsibility of law institutions "to hold Moot Courts and ADR" and that V.M. Salgaocar has carried it out beautifully without fail. Lastly Siddhant Shetye, the student coordinator gave us a brief overview of all that has transpired over the course of this competition.

The congregation was then addressed by the Chief Guest Justice Mahesh S Sonak, who paid his homage to G.D.Kamat. He also talked about the qualities that a law student must inculcate and that the moot court competitions served as a stepping stone for that.

This was followed by declaration of the results wherein the Best Researcher award was bagged by Jaydivya Mohan (University Institute of Legal Studies, Punjab University), the Best Memorial by School of Excellence in Law, the Best Mooter by Shrinidhi Joshi (RV. Institute of Legal Studies). The runners up were ILE Society's BCA, Hubballi. The winners of the competition were National Law Institute University, Bhopal.

The Valedictory Function concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Aamod Shirali (Director of the Moot Court Society) who applauded the efforts of all the Volunteers, sponsors and the organizing Committee for making the competition a grand success. The Program was compered by Alyka Machado and Bhumika K. Redkar. Overall, the event and competition was a grand success, ending on a positive note.
