

Course Outcomes

B.A. LL.B Programme and LL.B Programmes

Programme outcomes

(PO) 1: Knowledge and inter-disciplinary approach towards understanding the law

(PO) 2: The ability to interpret and analyse the legal principles

(PO) 3: Skills in research, legal drafting, advocacy and ethical values

(PO) 4: Social sensitivity and professional competence

SEM I

Course	Course Outcomes
General English – I	CO1 - To improve communication skills and builds confidence CO2- To develop fundamentals of grammar and writing skills. CO3- To help and develop students in their listening abilities CO4 - To provide students with the knowledge of literature and it's different genres
Legal Research And Methodology	CO1 - To understand the legal terms of common usage. CO2 - To understand the parts of judgment CO3 - To learn and analyse the legal maxims CO4 - To learn the drafting of notice, affidavit. CO5 - To learn the various stages and tools of research.
Environmental Studies	CO1 - Define environmental studies and ecology with basic principles. CO2 - Predict the consequences of human actions on the web of life, the global economy, and the quality of human life. CO3 - Think critically and develop appropriate strategies (scientific, social, economic, administrative, and legal) for environmental protection, conservation of biodiversity, environmental equity, and sustainable development. CO4 - Demonstrate values and show compassionate attitudes towards complex
Political Science – I: Political Thought	CO1- Apply the concepts of Liberty, Equality and Justice to understand the functioning of society. CO2- Analyse the role played by Political Ideologies in society and relate it to the practical domain. CO3- Discuss the importance of Political theory in practical reality. CO4- Classify and Distinguish between various types of Power and Authority.
Economics – I: Micro Economics	CO1 To understand behaviour of different economic agents viz consumers, producers, owners of factors in different economic circumstances. CO2 To analyse different market structures and to understand how economic agents behave in this markets. CO3 To understand and analyse theories of production and cost and principles of factor pricing in an economy. CO4 To learn concepts & problems of welfare and different criterias of welfare given by economists.

SEM II

General English II	CO1- To help students develop an understanding of legal terms through legal texts. CO2- To provide students the skills to learn new words and teach them their meanings. CO3- to provide student confidence in public speaking. CO4- To help students to reinforce their writing, grammar, punctuation skills, etc.
Law of Contracts-I	CO1 To comprehend the concepts and law of contracts CO2 To understand the theory and law of breach and remedies for breach of contracts CO3 To articulate the fundamentals and law of government contracts CO4 To compute the essentials and law of specific enforcement of contracts
Law of Torts	CO1 To understand the meaning and nature of Tort as a civil wrong CO2 To understand the different types of torts and its essentials CO3 To learn different principles governing tortuous liability CO4 Interpret the law in accordance with the Judicial precedents/ pronouncements
Political Science II Indian Government and Politics	CO1 Highlighting the key principles of the Indian Constitution and its administrative structure CO2 Analyse the impact of language, religion, region and caste on political processes CO3 Examine different political issues & personalities and present their impact & contribution CO4 Demonstrate professional competence in engaging in political debates and discussions
Economics II	CO1 Learning and understanding the structure of the Indian Economy prior to independence and after independence. CO2 Analyzing all indicators of economic development. CO3 Understanding and interpreting the structure of planning in India and changes taken place over the years CO4 Examining the role and importance of the primary, secondary and external sector in various facets of Indian economy.

SEM III

Constitutional Law – I	CO1 The students would familiarize themselves with the historical evolution of the Constitution and acquaint themselves with the Basic Postulates of the Constitution. CO2 The students would comprehend the meaning, scope, and limitations of fundamental rights and be able to analyse significant judicial decisions critically in assessing the validity of State restraints on fundamental freedoms. CO3 The students would be able to appreciate the role of Directive Principles of State Policy in shaping the legal regime in India and build their own narratives on using Directive Principles of State Policy to define the frontiers of fundamental rights. CO4 The students should be able to articulate their independent views on how Fundamental Rights, Directive Principles of State Policy and
------------------------	---

	Fundamental Duties intersect and thereby address contemporary constitutional issues.
Law Of Crimes	CO1: Informing and making the students to understand the principles of criminal law CO2 : After going through this course students will understand and apply the definitions and punishments imposed, when they start practice CO3: Students will be able to differentiate various definitions and its important elements CO4: Students will understand and appreciate when the accused person can take benefit under various exceptions form crime
Contract – II	CO1 To comprehend the concepts and law of special contracts CO2 To understand the theory and law of partnership CO3 To articulate the fundamentals and law of negotiable instruments CO4 To compute the essentials and law of sale of goods
Political Science III: Comparative Government And Politics (Government And Politics Of U.K., U.S.A, Russia, China, Switzerland, France)	CO1 Identify the historical backgrounds and ideological basis of major world constitutions CO2 Compare and contrast the constitutional structures of different countries CO3 Synthesise knowledge of comparative politics to develop innovative solutions to political challenges CO4 Evaluate the effectiveness of interest groups and social movements on political outcomes
Economics – III: Macroeconomics	CO1 learning and understanding the meaning and measurement of national income and social accounts. CO2 Evaluate how interest rates are set during various time periods. CO3 To become familiar with and comprehend the nature, characteristics and various theories of the trade cycle CO4 Evaluate numerous growth models in order to comprehend distinct sources of economic growth

SEM IV

Family Law I	CO1 To study in detail the sources of different personal laws in India CO2 To analyse the provisions relating to marriage and divorce under various personal laws in India and its application to practical life. CO3 To understand the procedure and concepts of adoption, guardianship, custody, legitimacy under the various personal laws in India. CO4 To learn the functioning of family courts, status of child marriage, uniform civil code and the provisions under the Goa Civil Code.
Property Law & Easements	CO1 - Informing and making the students to understand the principles of Property law CO2 - After going through this course, students will understand and apply rules in their drafting of conveyance when they start practice CO3 - Students will be able to understand the differences between Lease and Licence, Transfer of Property and Indian Easement CO4 - Students will understand and appreciate the concepts of transfer of property like Sale, Mortgage, gift and Lease with regard to immovable property
Constitutional Law II	CO1 Learning and understanding Constitutional principles, provisions of Federal form of Government in India and powers of Parliament to amend

	the Constitution and Identify the restrictions to Amendment of the Constitution CO2 Comprehend and Analyse the role, concept and the functions of the Indian Judiciary, Union and States with regards to the Executive and Legislative powers CO3 Interpret the law in accordance with the Judicial precedents/ pronouncements CO4 Synthesize the existing knowledge of legal principles, legislation and precedent and apply relevantly to the practical situation
Political Science IV	CO1- Know about the various Ancient and Modern Political Thinkers. CO2- Analyse political, social and economic ideas of various Indian Political Thinkers CO3- Differentiate between moderate and extremist methods. CO4- Appreciate the freedom struggle and freedom fighters' intense patriotic feelings.
Special English	CO1 To understand the legal essays and the contexts discussed in them. CO2 To express one's views through paragraph writing, essay writing, report writing and interpreting legal notices CO3 To improve one's vocabulary by learning about Synonyms, Antonyms, Homonyms and Homophones. CO4 To understand the use of grammar and grammatical rules while reading, writing and expressing oneself.

SEM V

Family Law - II	CO1 To comprehend the uncodified Hindu Law relating to coparcenary CO2 To understand the laws relating to succession in India CO3 To evaluate the concept of spousal property CO4 To analyse the concept and need for gender justice
Company Law	CO1- To understand the meaning and Nature of Company CO2-To analyze different types of companies and procedure for conversion of public into private company and conversion of private into public companies . CO3- To understand the role of receiver and commissioner in case of companies CO4- To analyses the procedure for winding up of the company.
Environmental Law	CO1 To understand the legal framework governing environmental protection in India, including the relevant legislation, policies, and regulatory mechanisms CO2 Analyze and assess various environmental issues, such as pollution control, biodiversity conservation, forest management, and climate change, from a legal perspective CO3 Learn how to interpret environmental laws and regulations to real-world scenarios CO4 Synthesized with the knowledge and tools to promote sustainable development practices in India

Political Science V- Political Science Goa Pre- Statehood & Goa Post- Statehood	CO1- Describe the significant political events like the transition phase, opinion poll, merger issue, and language issue. CO2- Examine the emergence and role of various political parties (esp. regional parties). CO3- Analyse the role of different Chief Ministers CO4- Critically evaluate the instability phase of the political system of Goa, Striving for statehood.
History of India upto A.D. 1200	CO1 To introduce the students to learn about prehistory, protohistory and important political events of India till end of the Vardhana Dynasty with a brief idea about the different sources and the changing interpretations of ancient Indian history. CO2 helps the students to understand and recognize the precedents, causes and effects of major historical events and critically examining their relevance in contemporary economic, socio-political and cultural events CO3 helps in pursuing research in different fields thereby offering their expertise to governmental and non-governmental bodies, participating in drives towards preservation of environment and heritage and engaging in significant contemporary discourses and dialogues in History in written and oral forms. CO4 Makes the student of History to appreciate the vast reservoir of ancient knowledge and heritage that ancient India had and develop efforts towards preserving the same through critical insights into Heritage Studies, Archaeology, Museology, Numismatics and allied fields.

SEM VI

Legal Theory / Jurisprudence	CO1 To develop in the learners a fuller appreciation of law CO2 Instil in the students the capacity of critical thought and interpretation of law CO3 Enable the learner to build conceptual foundation to the study of law CO4 Develops interaction between legal practice and legal philosophy
Labour Law I	CO1 To learn and understand the beneficial laws applicable to labour class. CO2 To study and analyse the role of Executive and Judiciary in implementing the labour legislations CO3 To comprehend and interpret the labour law legislations in accordance with Judicial precedents. CO4 To synthesize the knowledge and make it applicable to the practical situation for the benefit of labour class.
Political Science – VI- Public Administration	CO1- Identify the importance of Public Administration. CO2- Distinguish between Public Administration and Private Administration. CO3- Discuss the importance of Training for Civil Servants. CO4- Examine the role played by Public- Private Partnerships.
History - II	CO1 to acquire knowledge of the major political developments of Medieval India and understand the contribution of Medieval dynasties to the economic, social and cultural development of India. CO2 It helps the students to understand and recognize the precedents, causes and effects of major historical events and critically examining their relevance in contemporary economic, socio-political and cultural events

	CO3 help the students to Identify significant changes in the social, cultural and religious fields as a result of invasions that took place in Medieval India. CO4 helps the students to participate in drives towards preservation of culture and heritage and engaging in significant contemporary discourses and dialogues in History in written and oral forms.
Law of Insurance (Optional Subject)	CO1 Learning and understanding the legal framework and regulatory mechanism of the insurance industry in India CO2 Analyze the contract of insurance, analyse the rights and obligations of parties to the contract CO3 Interpret the claim process; life insurance claim, fire insurance claim etc., CO4 Synthesize the existing knowledge of legal principles/doctrines, legislation and precedent and apply relevantly to the practical situation
Interpretation of Statutes (Optional Subject)	CO1 Inculcate in law students the art of interpretation of statutes and to train them effectively in legislative drafting. CO2 Interpret the appropriate provisions using the accepted rules and principles of statutory interpretation; CO3 Understand the importance of Legislation as a major source of law. CO4 Analyse the different approaches used by Courts to develop certain rules, doctrines and principles of interpretation.

SEM VII

Labour Law II	CO1- To understand the right of the workers to receive minimum wages and the remedies available in case of non payment of minimum wages under the Minimum Wages Act 1948. CO2- to learn the procedure of payment of wages, permissible deductions in wages and the authorities to approach in case of grievances related to payment of wages or illegal deductions under the Payment of Wages Act 1936. CO3- to analyze the situations where an employer is liable to pay compensation and when workmen has a right to receive compensation and determine the scheme of compensation and to know the authorities under the Employees Compensation Act 1923. CO4- To explore the benefits available under the ESI Act 1948 and study the role of ESI corporation and learn the mechanism for adjudication of disputes.
Law of Evidence	CO1- To understand the difference between relevant and irrelevant facts. CO2 - Kinds of Evidences allowed by law and kinds of facts that can be proved by such evidences CO3 - To understand the law relating to burden of proof and impact of presumptions on burden of proof CO4 - To understand the role examinations in trial and significance of privileged communication on trial
Administrative Law	CO1 The students would acquaint themselves with the meaning and scope of Administrative Law, trace the development of Administrative law in UK. USA and in India, and the fundamental principles of judicial review and natural justice on which Administrative Law is based. CO2 The students would comprehend the different categories of governmental action namely delegated legislation, administrative

	discretion and administrative adjudication and be able to analyse significant judicial decisions critically in assessing the validity of governmental actions. CO3 The students would be able to perceive the delimiting of the privileges and immunities of the government in legal proceedings CO4 The students should be able to develop their original views on the applicability of public law review and other institutional mechanism to check the possible abuse of power by the government.
History Of India A.D. 1760-1950 And World History	CO1 Students will understand the Socio- economic, cultural and Political background of Modern India as well as the process of rise of Modern India. CO2 It helps the students to understand and recognize the precedents, causes and effects of major historical events and critically examining their relevance in contemporary economic, socio-political and cultural events CO3 helps in pursuing researching different fields thereby offering their expertise to governmental and non-governmental bodies, participating in drives towards preservation of environment and heritage and engaging in significant contemporary discourses and dialogues in History in written and oral forms. CO4 Students will understand the process of healthy Nationalism and Secularism by studying work of social reformer and freedom fighters.
Human Rights (Optional Subject)	CO1 to understand the conceptual and theoretical framework relating to human rights CO2 gain knowledge about the international, regional and national legal regimes for the protection of human rights CO3 to critically evaluate the efficacy of various legal instruments and institutions established for the protection of human rights CO4 be sensitive to human rights issues
Child And Law (Optional Subject)	CO1- To understand the concept of Child Rights. CO2- To understand the significance of the law on Child Rights. CO3- To understand the various laws in relation to children. CO4- To understand the Judicial perspective on Child Rights.

SEM VIII

CPC & Limitation Act	CO1- To understand the General provisions of Civil Procedure code CO2- Analyze the procedure to be followed in the civil courts in civil matters CO3- To understand and appreciate the remedies for infringement of substantive rights in civil matters CO4 - To have complete understanding of civil court functioning
Cr.PC	CO1 - To introduce the students functionaries of the Code CO2 - To understand the principle features of a fair trial CO3 - To learn various types of trails and disposal of cases without full trail CO4 - To understand the powers of executive magistrates in the prevention of crimes under Criminal procedure

Public International Law	CO1 To introduce the students to the basic principles of International Law. CO2 To understand how international law today influences and interacts with domestic law in diverse situations. CO3 To demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the international rights frame work, its origins CO4 To synthesize the existing knowledge of legal principles, legislation and precedent and apply relevantly to the practical situation
Criminology, Penology &Victimology (Optional Subject)	CO1 To understand the meaning and scope of Criminology, Penology and Victimology. CO2 To understand the significance of Crime and Criminal Law CO3 To learn various theories in relation to crime causation CO4 To understand the utility of Criminology, Penology and Victimology
Patent Rights: Creation & Registration (Optional Subject)	CO1 To recognize the importance of IP and basic concepts of Intellectual Property Rights. CO2To learn the procedure of obtaining Patents CO3 To identify the significance of practice and procedure of Patents CO4 Understand the patent process
Banking Law (Optional Subject)	CO1 Learning and understanding Banking concepts, provisions of Banking Regulation Act, 1949, Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 etc., and understand regulatory CO2 Comprehend and understand and interpret the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 and Analyse it with reference to judicial pronouncements CO3 Interpret the different banking contracts eg., loan agreements, Letters of Credit etc., CO4 Synthesize legal implications of banking operations; different types of bank accounts, special types of customers etc.,

SEM IX

Law of Taxation	CO1- to understand the background of taxation in India and its dynamic nature along with recent amendments. CO2- to learn the basic terminology under the tax laws in India and how direct and indirect taxes are levied and assessed under the taxation system in India. CO3- to analyze the duty of every citizen to pay taxes ,learn the offences and penalties under the taxation laws. CO4- to evaluate the indirect tax system in India and analyze its success in real practise.
Drafting, Pleading and Conveyancing.	CO1 Analysing and understanding the linkages between laws while drafting the Conveyancing CO2 Analysing and understanding the linkages between laws while drafting the Pleadings CO3

	Drafting of conveyancing and pleadings and developing an analytical mind to draft under correct provisions CO4 Analysing the interests of the parties and comparing with rights provided under the law and drafting pleadings and conveyancing accordingly
Professional Ethics, Accountancy for Lawyers and Bar Bench Relations	CO1 To learn and understand the concept of professional ethics and develop sensitivity towards ethics, honesty and integrity CO2 To comprehend and analyse the legislations on professional ethics relating to Advocates and integrate the ethical principles in legal profession CO3 To examine the importance of ethics in furtherance of providing exposure of law students to the office culture, client counselling, pro bono service, community legal aid & the legal profession at large CO4 To synthesize the knowledge of ethics in legal profession so as to create socially competent Advocates
Trade Mark and Design Law	CO1 To recognize the importance of IP and basic concepts of Intellectual Property Rights. CO2 Identify the various kinds of Trademarks in India as per the Trade Marks Act, 1999 CO3 Understand the meaning, scope and concept of Trademarks CO4 To learn the procedure of obtaining Trademarks
Land Law	CO1 - Understand the procedure for determination of fair compensation and settlement of claims with respect to land acquisition. CO2 - Understand and apply the local land laws prevalent in the State of Goa such as the Land Revenue Code 1968, the Agricultural Tenancy Act 1964, the Mundkar Act, 1975, the Mamlatdar Courts Act 1966 CO3 - Comprehend the procedure, powers, and functions of the Mamlatdars Court CO4 - Apply the knowledge and skills acquired for a career in land related litigations. .
Maritime Law (Optional Subject)	CO1-To introduce the students to the different concepts of law and law of Contract. CO2-To identify the Maritime zones and admiralty jurisdiction. CO3-To analyse the implementation of the legislations incidental to Merchant Shipping, Maritime Insurance, and Carriage of Goods by sea. CO4-To determine the legal remedies to solve disputes arising under Maritime Laws.

Practical Paper III (Alternative Dispute Resolution)	CO1 Understanding legal aid and developing social sensitivity among the students CO2 Creating an opportunity for clinical methods of learning for students. Using the society as a laboratory for social scientists and getting first-hand experience in interviewing live clients and providing practical solutions to the challenges CO3 Making students understand the concept of conflict and appreciate the importance of the amicable settlement of a dispute CO4 Skills of being a professional Negotiator and Mediator, understanding the law relating to arbitration and its implications
Practical Paper IV (Moot Court, Observation of Trial & Interview Techniques)	CO1 To develop researching, drafting and argumentation ability among students CO2 To gain experiential learning through observation of criminal and civil trial proceedings CO3 To gain skills of interviewing and counseling the client and learn interpersonal skills CO4 To gain all practical skills required for hardcore trial practice on both civil and criminal sides.
Copyright (Compulsory Subject)	CO1 To To understand Copyright law in India and emerging issues relating to Copyright CO2 To disseminate knowledge on copyrights and it's related rights and registration aspects CO3 To study and analyse the interface between copyright law and other intellectual property related laws CO4 To study and understand the jurisprudential and territorial aspects of copyrights.
Law & Education (Optional Subject)	CO1 To learn and understand the provisions pertaining to education as a subject reflecting under the Indian Constitution. CO2 To study and analyse the laws dealing with higher education and school education. CO3 To comprehend and interpret the legal provisions in accordance with Judicial precedents. CO4 To synthesize the knowledge and apply the same to the practical situation.
Humanitarian and Refugee Law (Optional)	CO1-To introduce the students to the evolution and progressive development of International humanitarian Law. CO2-To interpret the International humanitarian Law from the Four Geneva Conventions of 1949 and Additional Protocols. CO3-To analyse the implementation of the international humanitarian Law through the International Committee of the Red Cross. CO4-Examine the problems of Refugees and potential durable solutions for Refugee crisis

Right to Information & Law (Optional Subject)	CO1 - To analyse legislative provisions related to right to information in India CO2- To understand and analyse the relationship of Right to Information Act with other statutes in India CO3 - To understand the practical applicability of the Right to Information Act, 2005 CO4 - To interpret the legal provisions in light of judicial precedents
Women & Law (Optional Subject)	CO1 To comprehend the necessity of special legal provisions for women CO2 To study the various constitutional provisions providing special status to women CO3 To understand the different legal provisions enacted specially for women CO4 To analyse the impact of special women centric legal provisions on women
Humanitarian And Refugee Law (Optional Subject)	CO1 To introduce the students to the evolution and progressive development of International humanitarian Law CO2 To interpret the International humanitarian Law from the Four Geneva Conventions of 1949 and Additional Protocols CO3 To analyse the implementation of the international humanitarian Law through the International Committee of the Red Cross CO4 Examine the problems of Refugees and potential durable solutions for Refugee crisis