

LITERARY CLUB REPORT

Co-ordinators: Shaina Dhulapkar and Ruhi Phadte

The V.M. Salgaocar College of Law Literary Club was created to give students a platform to showcase their untapped abilities and develop their critical thinking skills. To help with this, the association hosts seminars, workshops, and contests. The group also provides mentoring to students who want to take part in intercollegiate literary and linguistic activities and competitions.

1. ESSAY WRITING AND POSTER MAKING COMPETITION

On July 28, 2023, the club held a competition for essay writing and poster-making in observance of "World Nature Conservation Day and International Tiger Day." The topic for the poster was "conserve nature conserve life," and the essay's objective was to "raise awareness about tiger extinction and the need to save tiger." In all, 10 people competed in the poster-making competition and 14 people in the essay-writing competition.

The judges for the competition were Dr. Kim Curto, Dr. Mrunmayi Vaidya and Dr. Sonal Sardesai.

Winners for the poster making were Nikita Agarwadekar (first place), Swayam Faldessai (Second place) and third place was shared by Dipika Gupta and Ryle Ammagol.

Winners for the essay writing were Rizzeria Pacheco (first place), Nidhi Gawade (second place) and Priya Shirodkar (Third place). All the participants were given participation certificates.

2. WORLD COMIC BOOK DAY

On October 10, 2023, the Literary Club students celebrated Comic Book Day. To show off their artistic skills to the world, the students made their own comic books. Six tales in all were written by the students: where in, two were digitally created and remaining four were painted and sketched. Every comic book featured a distinct storyline and genre. For the day, the books were on exhibit at the campus library.

