1) Diploma in Civil Law XII Post Graduate Course Summary Report (2018-19)

Introduction

In 2019, V. M. Salgaocar College of Law, Miramar, in collaboration with Faculdade de Direito, Universidade de Lisboa, Instituto de Cooperação Jurídica, organized the XII edition of the Diploma in Civil Law Post Graduate Course from 14th January to 8th February 2019. This specialized program was designed to provide postgraduate students and legal professionals with a deeper understanding of civil law principles, focusing on comparative legal systems and fostering international legal cooperation. The course attracted 46 participants, including legal practitioners, academicians, and postgraduate students, and was conducted over 35 hours.

Course Outcomes:

The program aimed to enhance participants' knowledge and skills in civil law through an intensive and focused curriculum. The key outcomes of the course were:

1. In-depth Understanding of Civil Law Principles: Participants gained comprehensive knowledge of core principles of civil law, with a focus on comparative perspectives between Indian and Portuguese legal frameworks.
2. Practical Legal Insights: The program included discussions on practical applications of civil law in various jurisdictions, enabling participants to bridge the gap between theoretical knowledge and legal practice.
3. International Collaboration: Exposure to the teaching methodologies and legal perspectives of the esteemed faculty from Universidade de Lisboa promoted a global outlook on civil law.
4. Skill Development: Participants enhanced their research, analysis, and critical thinking skills in civil law.
5. Networking Opportunities: The course facilitated interactions among peers, academicians, and legal professionals, fostering collaborative learning and professional networking.

Evaluation: A certificate was issued to all those candidates who successfully qualified the written exam & who secured 75% attendance.

Conclusion

The XII Diploma in Civil Law Post Graduate Course was a resounding success, providing participants with a unique opportunity to delve deeply into civil law through comparative legal studies. The partnership between V. M. Salgaocar College of Law and Faculdade de Direito, Universidade de Lisboa exemplified the importance of international academic collaborations in enriching legal education. The course not only elevated the participants' understanding of civil law but also contributed to fostering a global perspective and professional development in the legal fraternity.
