

11) Certificate Course on Criminal Procedure Summary Report (2022-2023)

Introduction:

The Certificate Course on Criminal Procedure, conducted by V.M. Salgaocar College of Law, was a focused 30-hour program designed to equip participants with a thorough understanding of the procedural aspects of criminal law from 3rd April to 15th April 2023. With 97 students enrolled, the course provided a blend of theoretical learning and practical application, emphasizing the intricacies of criminal litigation and justice administration.

Course Outcomes:

The course was structured to achieve the following objectives:

- Comprehensive Understanding of Criminal Procedure: Participants learned the procedural framework of criminal law, from investigation through sentencing.
- Mastery of Key Provisions: The course focused on vital aspects of the Criminal Procedure Code (Cr.P.C), including arrest, bail, charge framing, and trial processes.
- Practical Application Skills: Students were trained in drafting legal documents such as charges, bail applications, and procedural filings.
- Enhanced Litigation Competence: The program prepared participants to engage effectively in criminal litigation and navigate the criminal justice system.

Evaluation: The evaluation methods ensured a comprehensive assessment of participants' understanding and application of the course material:

- Assignments and Case Studies: Students were tasked with drafting procedural documents, analysing real-life case laws, and addressing hypothetical scenarios.
- Interactive Discussions: Group discussions on landmark judgments and procedural challenges allowed participants to deepen their understanding of concepts.
- Final Assessment: A written assessment tested participants' knowledge of procedural laws and their practical application skills.
- Feedback provided throughout the course helped students refine their learning and address specific challenges.

Conclusion:

The Certificate Course on Criminal Procedure was a valuable initiative that bridged academic knowledge with practical skills. By focusing on procedural law and its real-world implications, the course successfully prepared 97 enrolled participants for careers in criminal litigation and legal consultancy. The inclusion of rigorous evaluations ensured that students emerged with a strong foundation in the procedural aspects of criminal law.
