

3) Diploma in Civil Law Summary Report (2019-2020)

Introduction

During the academic year 2019-2020, V. M. Salgaocar College of Law, Miramar, in collaboration with Faculdade de Direito, Universidade de Lisboa, Instituto de Cooperação Jurídica, conducted a Diploma in Civil Law program from 13th January to 8th March 2020. This initiative aimed to provide postgraduate students, academicians, and legal practitioners with specialized knowledge of civil law principles, focusing on comparative and international perspectives. A total of 54 participants enrolled in this intensive 32-hour program, which highlighted the dynamic nature of civil law and its application across jurisdictions.

Course Outcomes

The program achieved significant outcomes, contributing to the professional and academic growth of its participants. Key outcomes included:

1. Comprehensive Understanding of Civil Law: Participants developed a robust understanding of fundamental civil law concepts, including contracts, obligations, and property law, analyzed through a comparative lens between Indian and Portuguese systems.
2. Comparative Legal Analysis: The program emphasized comparative legal studies, enhancing participants' ability to evaluate civil law in different jurisdictions, thereby broadening their perspectives.
3. Practical and Academic Development: The course blended theoretical insights with practical applications, enabling participants to link academic knowledge with real-world legal practices.
4. Interdisciplinary Collaboration: The collaboration with Universidade de Lisboa enriched the curriculum with international expertise, offering diverse viewpoints and fostering global legal awareness.
5. Professional Growth: The participants benefited from enhanced analytical, research, and critical thinking skills, crucial for legal practice and advanced studies.
6. Networking and Exchange: The program created a platform for meaningful interactions among participants, facilitators, and faculty, encouraging knowledge exchange and long-term professional relationships.

Evaluation: A certificate was issued to all those candidates who successfully qualified the written exam & who secured 75% attendance.

Conclusion

The Diploma in Civil Law program conducted in the academic year 2019-2020 was a noteworthy endeavour by V. M. Salgaocar College of Law in association with Faculdade de Direito, Universidade de Lisboa. With its rigorous curriculum and expert guidance, the program successfully bridged academic theory and practical application, equipping participants with essential legal knowledge and a global perspective. The participation of 54 students and the high level of engagement throughout the 32-hour course underscore the program's success in fostering legal excellence and international collaboration.
