

NATIONAL ADVENTURE CAMP ORGANIZED BY THE NSS

VMSCS NSS volunteer Annissa Theresa Da Cunha has successfully completed the National Adventure camp organized by the NSS, Government of India, in collaboration with the Atal Bihari Vajpayee Institute of Mountaineering and Allied Sports, Manali, Himachal Pradesh. She has acquired proficiency in essential skills such as rock climbing, rappelling, river crossing, trekking, camping, mountain rescue methods, social awareness, and leadership. The adventure training took place in the wilderness of the Himalayas, where she trekked a distance of 80 km and reached an altitude of 10,000 feet. The NSS Programme Officers (POs) in charge of the college are Assistant Professor Ms. Priscilla Fernandes and Mr. Siddhesh Tari.

